But we would prefer you to pick them up personally

Coffee Afternoon for Macmillan Nurses

We are holding a cake sale and coffee afternoon on Friday 27th September at 2.00pm with all money raised going to the Macmillan Nurses. They do a fantastic job and one we all hope we will never need. Please support us by baking some cakes to sell or come along and buy a tea or coffee. The cakes can be dropped off on Friday 27th in the morning. It will be a £1.00 for a drink and cake, 50p for orange and cake. There will also be a cake stall.

Recycle with Michael Clothing Bank

Unfortunately the Salvation Army are removing the clothing bank which is currently on the school grounds. But we will be having our usual PTFA Blue Bag Collection (bags arrive on Monday 14th October and are collected on Monday 11th November) so please support the PTFA by filling as many bags as possible with clothing etc.

Reception Aged Children

The Healthy Child Team are sending out an email towards the end of this week to us, which we will be forwarded to reception parent's emails. This will give parents the opportunity to complete the health questionnaires on-line, which is also submitted on line, and will take no-longer than 2 minutes to complete. Any questions please contact the school office.
